I like the way you think.

I can't help but wonder if the Home Depot shopping center, or the Town Center Mall would be a good candidates.. I could see setting a perimeter of cameras around the parking lots, maybe on the public roadways, capturing the entrances/exits to the parking lots. I'm wondering if there is an association, that might want to make that investment as a collective group of businesses. I can imagine the amount of theft from shopping centers would easily justify the expense.

Thanks, Dan.

We'll follow up with Sara and then with our hotels initially. I'll also touch base with Chuen and Dana in CD/Planning on the permit requirements.

I believe that we have shared some info about the program with our broader membership via our newsletter, so we'll continue to follow-up with others as we have opportunity.

In the meantime, if there are "high value" locations (specific businesses, or geographies) that you'd like us to help nudge forward initially, let me know.
